

THE GLAVEN
HISTORIAN

The Journal of the Blakeney Area Historical Society

Issue No. 5

June 2002

Management Committee 2001/02

Co – Chairmen	Richard Kelham Pam Peake
Secretary	Anne Maw
Treasurer	Anne Maw
Archivist
Editor	John Wright
Committee	Helen Brandt Jean Chell Monica White Tom Worboys Peter Wordingham

© 2002 BAHS and Contributors

ISSN 1471-3055

Correspondence may be addressed to the Society at:

2, Wiveton Road, Blakeney, Norfolk NR25 7NJ

THE GLAVEN HISTORIAN

The Journal of the Blakeney Area Historical Society

Issue No. 5

June 2002

CONTENTS

Editorial		2
Peter Carnell	Medieval Jettons discovered in Wiveton	3
Monica White	Morston Road, Blakeney: Building in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries	17
John Wright	The Origins of Blakeney Church	26
Eric Hotblack	Field Walking at Manor Farm, Field Dalling	35
Pamela Peake	The Family of John Baines, Master Mariner	45
Richard Jefferson	The William and Thomas : Trading Accounts (1726—1733)	58
John Wright	The old 'Guildhall' at Blakeney	66

THE BLAKENEY AREA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The main aims of the Society are:

- to study the history of the Blakeney area
- to make the results available to everyone
- to collect documents and other material relevant to the area to ensure their survival and accessibility
- to encourage an active interest in local history

Benefits of membership include:

- regular lectures on subjects relevant to local history
- newsletters and an annual journal containing articles about the Blakeney area
- access to a growing archive of material about the area
- access to others interested in the history of the area
- the use of a permanent History Centre (to be opened during 2002)

Enquiries about membership should be addressed to the Secretary whose name and address is given inside the front cover.